

Fair Opening Marked By Racial Incidents

NEW YORK (AP) — There were some clashes between police and civil rights demonstrators today but the World's Fair opened on schedule.

There had been threats that the fair opening would be disrupted by civil rights groups. Violence broke out in a Queens subway station where some demonstrators jumped to the tracks in the city's first subway lie-in.

Twenty-five persons, some with blood streaming from heads and faces from wounds suffered in the fight with police, had been arrested by the time the fair opened.

The subway incident started when someone pulled an emergency cord that brought a train to a jarring halt.

Some demonstrators aboard the train leaped to the tracks while others tried to obstruct doors of the train.

Three white women were among those arrested. They chanted "Freedom now" and "Just like Birmingham" on arriving at a police station.

The demonstration had been planned largely as a stall-in—the deliberate stalling of automobiles to block traffic leading to the fair.

Police spotted a number of stalled cars and towed them away, but traffic appeared lighter than usual. Many motorists who ordinarily pass the fairgrounds area in commuting from Long Island to New York City apparently took other routes.

Richard Whalen, an Associated Press newsman flying in a helicopter, said policemen were posted in pairs along the fair approaches and that numerous tow cars were parked beside the highways.

James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality who said he would lead the peaceful demonstrations inside the fair, said they were intended to spotlight the issues between the "glitter and the fantasy of the World's Fair and the real world of discrimination."

Farmer led demonstrators in a march from a mid-Manhattan church to Pennsylvania Station where they boarded a Long Island Rail Road train for the fairgrounds to picket certain state and commercial exhibits.

Farmer carried a cattle prod, a battery-powered pole that produces an electric shock when pressed against cattle or people. He also carried a placard that said: "This is a cattle prod used by Louisiana police."

He said CORE members had come from Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida and other states.

"I personally am going to

LBJ Attends Fair Opening

Special Program Scheduled Today

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson and thousands of other Americans are going to the fair today.

The fair is that sprawling collection of ultra-modern architecture, art and industry, national and state pride, "Futurama" Guy Lombardo, dinosaurs and Disney characters, rides and shows known as the New York World's Fair of 1964-65.

It opens with flag-raising, bands and speech-making. Before this opening day is over it may have been inspected in part—they say it would take a week or more to see it all—by a quarter to a half million people.

The attendance estimates vary because of the plan by civil rights demonstrators to stall cars on highways leading to the fair, form non-paying queues at ticket windows, and use various other devices to keep people out of the fair.

An impressive opening day program, from the 9:15 a.m. flag raising at the Court of the Universe to a Fountain of Plais show 12 hours later, was planned.

President Johnson's midday appearance was the highlight but there also were to be brief speeches by former President Harry S. Truman, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Mayor Robert F. Wagner, and India's Mrs. Indira Gandhi.

Also special on opening day are the premiere performance of Ferde Grofe's "World's Fair Suite," by a full symphony orchestra; presentation of first folders of the World's Fair commemorative stamp by Postmaster General John A. Gronouski; two band concerts, and a parade including Miss America.

Warns Cuba on Shooting Down Planes

U.S. Seeks Soviet Check On Castro

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is trying to get Soviet Premier Khrushchev to keep a restraining hand on Fidel Castro's trigger finger when he gives the Cuban leader control of a modern arsenal of anti-aircraft missiles in the near future.

This is one of two motives behind an unusual series of public statements and secret diplomatic moves warning the Cubans against shooting down any of the U.S. photo-reconnaissance planes which periodically fly over their island.

The other purpose is to try to get Prime Minister Castro and his advisers to understand that, as one official here put it, "We just won't tolerate any interference with those overflights which are essential to our security."

Officials here say privately that if Castro shoots down a U.S. plane he will have to expect a quick and violent retaliation. But so far, no one in a position of authority has been willing to say what form such retaliation would take.

At the time a U.S. U2 photo reconnaissance plane was shot down over Cuba during the October 1962 missile crisis, there was widespread talk in Washington that if another such incident occurred the United States would knock out the Cuban anti-aircraft missile bases by selective bombing attack.

The latest of the new warnings to Cuba came from President Johnson Tuesday in talking to a group of newsmen at the White House.

"It is essential that we maintain surveillance and know whether any missiles are being shipped into Cuba. We will have to maintain our reconnaissance and over-flights," the President said.

"Any action on their part to stop that would be a very serious action. We have so informed them and their friends." The President did not say what friends of the Castro regime he had in mind but the implication was clear enough that he was speaking of the Russians.

Ironically, the present uneasy fears of a new Cuban crisis arise from the apparently imminent success of the United States in achieving one of its major objectives — the withdrawal from Cuba of the last of the Soviet troops which went into the island in 1962 when the

Columbiana Crossing Proposals Discussed

COLUMBIANA — Representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad were present at Tuesday's Council meeting to discuss their proposal to install automatic crossing and sidewalk gates at the S. Main St. crossing, eliminating the need for a watchman.

Lynn Pelton, division engineer from Cleveland, said his company is gradually replacing watchmen with automatic gates as a safety factor. In the event of a power failure, standby battery power would be used, Pelton said.

Gates would "fail-safe" if trouble developed; that is, immediately go down until the situation is corrected, he explained.

Council asked Pelton about gates at S. Main and Elm St. which is considered most dangerous of all by residents.

Trains set still at a distance for long periods of time, causing the flasher to operate and hold up traffic. Pelton said the railroad would check into the problem.

Solicitor Jack Kuhlman was instructed to draw up a resolution permitting the Pennsylvania Railroad to install automatic gates at S. Main and Elm St.

Flood Threat In Ohio to Subside

Turbulent Weather Begins to Calm

By The Associated Press
The threat of high water was expected to subside in Ohio as the turbulent weather of the last few days began to calm.

Thunderstorms continued to wet scattered parts of the state Tuesday night, but the weather bureau predicted they would end today and skies would begin to clear in northern Ohio this afternoon and in central and southern Ohio tonight and Thursday.

Severe thunderstorm and tornado warnings had been posted for southern and central Ohio Tuesday afternoon but the weather bureau took them down at 9:30 Tuesday night.

Cincinnati, however, was hit by a storm with wind gust up to 52 miles an hour. Lightning struck a tent at the Cincinnati Gardens, and a horse that was part of a charity show there was touched by falling wires and electrocuted.

Lightning also struck a Cincinnati home and set the roof ablaze, but it was soon put out. No injuries were reported.

Why? Because they are residents of the 196 Ohio communities which will switch over to eastern Daylight Saving Time that day, including Salem.

Only they will have forgotten to set their alarm clocks ahead an hour before they went to bed Saturday night, and when the bell rings at 9 a.m. Sunday the time actually will be 10.

British, Soviets Exchange Spies

German Crossing Point Trade Scene

LONDON (AP)—A Royal Air Force plane brought Maynard Greville Wynne home from a Moscow prison today in a trade for Soviet spy Gordon Lonsdale. The exchange was made at the Heerstrasse crossing point between the British sector of West Berlin and East Germany at 5:35 a.m.

Wynne, 45, arrived at London's Northolt Airport seven hours later.

The British Foreign Office said it agreed to the exchange because Wynne was ill.

The once-chubby Wynne, who had lost a great deal of weight, told newsmen the swap for Lonsdale came as a great surprise to him.

Wynne had been in Communist hands for two years and five months. He was sentenced in Moscow last May to eight years detention—three in prison and five in a labor camp—as a courier of espionage information.

Asked how he felt, Wynne replied: "I feel as I look, gentlemen."

He looked thin and tired. "I have lost a lot of weight," Wynne continued.

Pledges Help On It, Rt. 62 Improvement

A&P Head Lauds City On Efforts To Get Warehouse

By LYNN BROWNE

Gov. James A. Rhodes declared Columbiana County is "too important a county not to have an airport" and promised state assistance in building one, when he spoke before more than 300 persons Tuesday night at the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce's annual dinner at the Masonic Temple.

Rhodes covered a wide variety of subjects in his talk, including the relocation of Rt. 62, and the need for an airport and better highways to attract new industry and help present ones to expand.

As in similar talks throughout Ohio during the current "Industry Appreciation Month," the governor stumped for passage of the $500 million bond issue for highways and reaffirmed his pledge of "no new taxes during my term as governor."

Other dignitaries speaking at the dinner were W. A. Donahoe of Pittsburgh, president of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Co.'s Central Division and a member of the board of directors of A. & P., and Edward A. Thomas, president of the Manufacturers division of the Chamber.

Representing the State Highway Department were Earl W. Nelson of New Philadelphia, director of Division 11; Clifford Newhall of Ravenna, director of Division 4, and Herman Price, design engineer for Division 4.

Although the governor avoided being specific about the much-sought Rt. 62 relocation in the Salem-Alliance area, The News learned afterwards that a hearing on the project is likely to be held within five weeks and that the relocation will be north.

Offers Help on Airport
In urging the county to build an airport, Gov. Rhodes pleaded for bipartisan support of the move and offered to come to Columbiana County at a later date and meet with a committee organized for that purpose.

"Columbiana County is too big a county, in both population and in area, and is too important a county, not to have an airport," he remarked.

"I'm sure that with the cooperation of state, county and local governments as well as industry and individuals, Colum-

Plans Made to Mark Bouquet Campaign

Robert P. Kelm of Lisbon, co-chairman of the Columbiana County Commemoration Com-mittee, announced today that ex-tensive plans are being made to commemorate the 200th anniver-sary of Col. Henry Bouquet's ex-pedition against the Ohio In-dians in 1764.

Kelm and William E. Stewart of New Kensington, Pa., project co-chairmen, respectively of Ohio and Pennsylvania, have been planning for several months to have historical units participate in this event.

Units already contacted and preparing for the event are the Aboriginal Explorers Club under the leadership of Harry Cline, who operates the Ohio Hills Indian Museum at Wells-ville; and the Tuscarora Trail Muzzle-Loading Club, headed by Tom Pike of Guilford Lake, op-erator of the Fort Tuscarora Museum, which houses a large collection of local historical items.

Col. Joseph Robbins of East Liverpool, commander of the 19th Regiment of the Buckeye Blues Brigade, has also been contacted for participation in the ceremonies.

O. Goetz, the Swiss consul, has sent a flag to be displayed during the commemoration. Goetz also plans to attend the event, as an official representa-tive of Switzerland, where Col. Bouquet was born.

The British consul general, J. F. F. Bamford, has expressed his regret at being unable to at-tend since he is returning to England in May. He is however, sending a flag for the event and hopes his successor may be able to attend. Col. Bouquet fought under the British flag during his expedition to Ohio which oc-curred some 20 years before the Revolutionary War.

Gov. William H. Scranton of Pennsylvania is sending the Pennsylvania state flag. The troops used in the expedition were mainly organized from German-speaking families of the Philadelphia area.

Gov. James A. Rhodes will also be asked to participate in the ceremonies and furnish an Ohio flag.

The Columbiana County Histor-ical Association, headed by Robert Cole of Salineville, pres-ident, is the sponsor of the event.

The group has contacted the Columbiana County Fair Board for permission to hold the com-memorative ceremonies at the fairgrounds.

Plans are to have units rep-resenting the Ohio Indians un-der Chief Pontiac and the col-onial troops under Col Bouquet march across Columbiana County from east to west. The units will join at the fairgrounds where they will camp on July 25. An old-time parade will be held in Lisbon that evening, with a grand ball for those in costume after the parade.

On Sunday, July 26, a skim-mish between the Indians and troops in the fashion of 200 years ago will be held for the general public.

Turnpike Improvements

Salem district motorists are probably as familiar with the Pennsylvania Turnpike as most drivers. Its proximity provides local people with a quick, useful highway to the eastern seaboard, yet this granddaddy of similar highways is beset with hazardous two-way tunnels.

Funds were scarce when the engineers planned the Pennsylvania toll road and it was not possible to build twin tunnels. Even the medial barrier had to be added later.

Increasing traffic, which followed the completion of the connecting Ohio Turnpike, produced king-size traffic jams at the tunnels and a new bypass and a new twin tunnel at the Laurel Hill and Allegheny Mountain tunnels are being completed.

Now the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission plans to go even further, with a $69 million program to relieve congestion at the five tunnels between Bedford and Carlisle. Bypasses are to be built at two tunnels and new tubes at three others.

These improvements, which underscore the importance of both the Ohio and Pennsylvania turnpikes, will be cheered by car owners and truckers alike. The facilities are vital to the area's future growth.

Time to Back Off

When they had a candidate, we admired the enthusiasm and drive demonstrated by backers of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator.

Then Col. Glenn, victim of a freak injury that prevented him from campaigning, withdrew from the race.

But his supporters have not withdrawn. Many are grouping for a last-ditch effort to win him the nomination he has said he no longer wants.

There is a point at which enthusiasm becomes obstinacy and purpose becomes obsession. Glenn supporters still waging an active campaign have reached that point.

John Glenn could be as fine a U.S. senator as he was an astronaut. But before he was sent aloft on his historic space venture, the people who put him there knew everything pertinent there was to know about him.

Ohio Democrats know nothing about Glenn's political capabilities.

Knowing this and knowing he wouldn't have time to run through a preflight checkoff for the electorate, Glenn "scrubbed" himself from the race.

We admire tenacity, but we can not respect bull-headedness. It is time for Col. Glenn's backers to back off.

Another Job for Smokey

While controversy rages over the Public Health Service report on the effects of cigarette smoking, one menace to life and limb from smoking is indisputable. Careless smoking can kill, whether or not one inhales and whether or not one uses pipe, cigar or cigarette.

The National Fire Protection Association reports that between 1955 and 1960, smoking and matches were responsible for 25.8 per cent of the fires in seasonal hotels and 42.3 per cent in year-round hotels.

Percentages were similar for apartments, dormitories, homes and hospitals.

An earlier survey by the Public Health Service showed that 21 of every 200 deaths in fires were caused by smoking.

In addition to protecting our forests against fire, there's a job for Smokey the Bear to protect human life.

Carry On, Men

Salem's Junior League baseball program is about to get under way again for another summer, but this season finds John Herman, Jr., the organizer and promoter of the worthy venture, sidelined by illness.

Meanwhile, others who have been closely associated with the fine sports program for boys are setting the stage for team assignments and early practices, happy to be able to lend a hand and relieve Johnny of an assignment he relished but which, along with a multitude of other endeavors, proved too much to handle. All the Little Leaguers wish their "chief" a speedy recovery.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

Every now and then, we have an ugly year in women's hats — a year when hats do nothing to enhance their wearers. We're having one now, with special reference to hats that make their wearers look like victims of encephalitis.

Every night when I get home from work I get a kiss — from a 90-pound mutt that catches me while I am disengaging myself from the seat of my minuscule auto. He knows I am helpless during this process and gets me on the left ear — never fails.

Baseball season is open again, and I hold my breath in anxiety lest these fragile athletes hurt themselves running out a fly, stooping to get a cupful of water, or sliding into 2nd base. Or stepping off a curb.

Intending no offense by this observation, I observe so many women wearing trousers to the supermarket where we go to stock up one night each week that I wonder if dresses finally will go out of style as functional garments and be worn only on ceremonial occasions.

I will be glad when the ski season ends because I consider skiing to be only slightly less hazardous than Russian roulette and wouldn't be surprised if someday it would be outlawed.

One effect of the civil rights ruckus has been to expose to public view on television many articulate Negro spokesmen who put to shame their counterparts, who used to claim Negroes were inferior in ability.

One of my secret ambitions is to take up golf as a left-handed swinger, because I have a theory I could do better than I did right-handed before I gave up the game in despair.

As a triumph of mind over matter, I moved two holly trees, six rose bushes, planted all the gladioli bulbs and finished up with 250 buckeye seedlings last weekend — and me a six-day-a-week office worker whose only exercise is reaching behind me for a dictionary.

Charlie Chaplin has reached the age of 75 and still dislikes America. As one of the most avid admirers of his artistry when he was with us, I wish him happiness on this and all birthdays to come. Our era has had no funnier comedian.

I must disagree with people offended by disclosures of Douglas MacArthur's opinions after his death. It was the famous general's idea to do this, not the idea of the interviewers. His admirers seem to have forgotten that public relations was Gen. MacArthur's forte.

The most malicious thing one man can do to another in a self-governing nation is to misrepresent a public issue. It is equivalent to poisoning the wells in a pastoral society.

Getting Ready for Launching

No Doctors' Strike In U.S.

By VICTOR RIESEL

There never will be a doctors' strike in the U.S. That's the word from many of the nation's most active physicians—

125 of whom were gathered at Chicago's Sheraton hotel. The Belgian boycott was the conversation piece at their unusual conference, which was political

These professional men had come from many cities at the call of their newest society, the American Medical Political Action Committee (AMPAC). They met to learn precinct politics from specialists. The doctors of the land appear not to have the slightest intention of idly waiting for American laws to develop in the image of Belgian and British medical legislation.

AMPAC specialists, who operate out of their national headquarters at 520 N. Michigan ave, Chicago, have doctors' political action rolling in high gear. Their vote getting machine is equipped with everything from prize winning motion pictures to a bulletin called Political Stethoscope.

THESE MOVIES are professional. They're produced in Hollywood at Parthenon Studios and feature a motion picture TV player, Don Hagerty, who does quite well in his role as a doctor who decides to go into politics.

One of the films — which are part of AMPAC's "barnstorming" political education course — is tailored for the busy physician who cannot find the time to go out into the precinct. The script tells him, in effect, that the precincts actually come to him each day in the form of patients.

AMPAC's strategists, who believe their physicians are a part of the opinion-making circles of each community, have titled this movie "How the Opinion Maker Makes Opinion in Politics."

The movie doctor is told how to win friends from the moment he leaves his home — as he passes the postman, talks to the elevator man in his professional building, walks by the reception nurse in the local hospital, encounters other doctors or technicians and talks privately with his patients.

IN THE LATTER scenes, the "doctor" talks a little politics with each patient if he feels there is empathy with "the cause" — which is opposition to the King-Anderson social security "medicare" bill. The movie doctor asks a patient: "Incidentally are you registered?" Or he says: "Incidentally, I don't know who you have in mind for Congress, but..."

There is another movie, "How to Stand Up and Not Be Counted," which is described as a film about the right and wrong ways to go into a campaign as a political novice. It explains how to raise funds and how to become a volunteer member on candidates' committees.

There are other films, but they are mostly slides and animated material. AMPAC leaders in all the 50 states and the District of Columbia feel they are effective and have used them at meetings and regional workshop sessions such as this past one here. Another conference is set for Denver. Two have already been held, in Atlanta and New York.

THOUGH THERE has been little publicity, AMPAC has been active for several years. And it claims successes, too. Typical of its activity was the doctors' campaign in Tennessee's third congressional district in '62. There AMPAC backed the conservative incumbent Democrat in a primary election. He lost. So the physicians bolted the Democrats and supported William E. Brock III in the regular fall elections. He won.

AMPAC leaders point to this election as characteristic of their non-partisanship. Their criterion is a conservative approach to medical legislation and opposition to the President's "medicare" bill.

Though President Johnson has just begun putting on the pressure for passage of the "medicare" bill, AMPAC will not swing into the presidential election.

Opposition as an organization to Mr. Johnson would compromise their non-partisan status, the doctors say. Instead, they will have enough political machinery to concentrate on at least 100 campaigns — for House seats. They say they don't have the funds to get into senatorial races.

THEY WILL NOT get behind any candidate, regardless of how much he pledges to fight "medicare" if he has no chance to win or if he obviously will win by a large margin. The doctors want to concentrate on marginal districts where they have a good chance to elect friends or at least to defeat a "medicare" champion.

Thus they believe that by working hard and professionally to deliver on the ballot line for their legislative friends, they will never have to hit the picket line.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Recently a letter signed "Past Tense" appeared in your column. The writer asked, "Am I wrong, or is the height of bad manners to use a toothpick at the table? Shouldn't the gentleman have excused himself?"

Your reply begged the question. You gave the woman the impression that her escort's bad manners were acceptable and she wound up looking stupid.

I have a 13-year-old daughter who reads your column regularly and respects your advice. Will you please address yourself to the woman's question?—CONNECTICUT YANKEE.

Dear Yankee: Approximately 500 people wrote with the same complaint. Half of the letters came from Boston and the other half came from Maine, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

With all those fine schools in New England, how come you people can't read? I said in plain English, "It is indeed poor manners to use a toothpick at the table. The man should have excused himself."

I did NOT mean the man should have said, "Excuse me," and used the toothpick there at the table. I meant (and I thought it was clear) the man should have left the table and taken his toothpick to the men's room.

Killing Conscience

Dear Ann: Can you tell me what to do about a conscience that's killing me?

Last week we had a semester geometry test. The boy who sits in front of me is just about a genius. Geometry is my weakest subject, although I have managed so far to sweat out a B.

This particular exam was a beast. I got stumped on the last problem and passed a note to the boy ahead of me, asking him to please slide over so I could see his answer. He slid over and I copied straight off his paper. I also changed my third answer after looking at his work.

I got an A on that exam but I feel like a thief. If I confess to the teacher I may get the boy in trouble because he helped me cheat. Please give me your advice at once. —SHOOK COOKIE.

Dear Shook: Go to the teacher and tell her you did not deserve an A because you copied off a boy's paper. It is not necessary to let her know that he was a willing helper.

False Friends

Dear Ann: Our teacher was called out of the room by the principal last Thursday. She put me in charge because I'm the class president.

Two of my best friends began to throw erasers and chalk. One eraser hit a girl in the face and knocked off her glasses. The glasses didn't break but the girl is a nervous type and she began to cry. The teacher walked in right in the middle of everything. She asked me for the names of the kids who were out of line. I had to give her the names of my best friends.

They lost their privileges for one week and now they're sore at me. They called me a rat and a fink and a lousy stool pigeon. I feel awful. Did I do right or wrong? —JERRY.

Dear Jerry: You did right. It was your responsibility to maintain order. If your friends would not cooperate, they deserved to be reported. Moreover, your own honor and integrity were on the line. Real friends can't expect you to use influence to cover up for them when they are out of order. Make no apologies—ever.

Political 'Pro'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

President Johnson readily could be classed as a "pro" in national politics and he showed his insight even into the techniques of the opposite party when he said at his latest news conference that Sen. Goldwater is "up there pretty high" in the Republican presidential contest.

Mr. Johnson, in an apparently disinterested vein, passed out some information on the Republican race which corresponds with what the insiders in the Republican party have been saying among themselves. The president commented as follows:

"One of the men I talked to yesterday, who is very knowledgeable in public affairs, told me that he thought if Sen. Goldwater carried California — and Illinois, as he has — if he carries Texas as he expects to, without any question, and the other Southeastern states, probably having Arizona and some of the states like Montana and Wyoming, that potential was some 632 votes, without one or two other states that they considered could go his way."

"I looked like a pretty solid figure, over 500, the way it was going now. I haven't checked it and I don't know anything about it. But when you take the Southeastern votes that have indicated they are for him, and add to them Illinois, Texas and California, what he might pick up in some of the other states. I think he will be up there pretty high."

WHILE MANY Republican observers throughout the country see the race the same way, some of them are frank to note that if Goldwater doesn't make it, many of his votes will be passed on to former Vice President Nixon.

Incidentally, what the President said, and what his informant told him, are in direct contrast with recent reports in newspapers analyzing the primary election in Illinois.

Several writers, for instance, drew attention to the fact that Sen. Goldwater got 64 per cent of the Republican vote in the presidential preference primary but that he polled only 51 per cent of the Republicans who went to the polls to vote for a gubernatorial candidate. This comparison isn't really significant at all, because again and again the total number of votes cast for governor have been in excess of those cast for president.

In the Illinois primary this year, the names of both the gubernatorial and presidential candidates were printed on the same ballot but only Sen. Goldwater and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith were officially listed in the presidential race. So the voting for Lodge and Nixon had to be by write-in.

A TOTAL of 800,000 votes were cast for the presidential nominees, while one million voted for the Republican candidates for governor in the primary. Persons who worked in the campaign in Illinois say that the gubernatorial race was much more hotly contested and attracted far more interest than did the presidential primary.

Even this doesn't answer all the questions that could be asked. While Sen. Goldwater got 513,000 votes out of one million cast for all the candidates — a clear majority — the question arises as to how many of the 206,000 votes cast for Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, for example, were a compliment to the first woman candidate and whether the bulk of those cast would have gone to Ambassador Lodge or former Vice President Nixon if their names had been on the ballot.

As it was, a write-in of 52,000 for Mr. Lodge and approximately 25,000 for Mr. Nixon raises the question of how these two groups of voters would have recorded their likes or dislikes if the ballot had been solely between Sen. Goldwater and Mr. Lodge, or between the Arizona senator and Mr. Nixon.

IN MANY STATES candidates in the primaries for the party nomination for the presidency, for the governorship and for other offices are on the same ballot. In many other states they are not. In a few big states, voting machines make it difficult to split a ticket when there are so many candidates listed for a number of offices.

One of the phenomena of American elections is the way in which members of Congress sometimes run far ahead of the nominees for president and sometimes far behind.

A few decades ago, when there was a simple ballot, the presidential nominee usually carried along on his coattails the congressional nominees of his own party. This doesn't happen today.

In recent years, only 90 out of every 100 persons voting for president have taken the pains to vote for congressional candidates. There is plainly an indifference to the congressional elections. Yet sometimes when a contest is sharp and the race is bitter, the total votes cast in a congressional election in some districts will far exceed those cast for the presidential candidates.

THERE SEEMS to be no explanation for the erratic behavior of the voters themselves as recorded in the totals. There is adequate explanation either as to why so many people do not vote at all. It is true sometimes personal emergencies or other difficulties in getting to the polling places prevent voters from casting their ballots but more often than not it is lack of information about any of the candidates or the issues which produces either bewilderment or indifference — and often both.

Today In History

Today is Wednesday, April 22, the 113th day of 1964. There are 253 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1889, a gun boomed at 12 noon, signaling the start of the last spectacular free-for-all rush for government land. At that moment, 20,000 people surged into central Oklahoma Territory in a race for homestead. On this date In 1793, George Washington issued his proclamation of neutrality in the war between France and England. In 1870, the leader of the Russian revolution, Nikolai Lenin, was born. In 1898, a blockade of Cuba was declared by the United States. In 1943, American fliers attacked Rangoon and Mandalay, India.

Mrs. Jon R. Dixon

Trina Loria Is Bride Of Jon Richard Dixon

A nuptial mass in St. Columba Cathedral in Youngstown Saturday morning united in marriage Miss Trina Sue Loria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Loria of 888 N. Union Ave., and Jon Richard Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dixon of Orlo Lane, Youngstown. Rev. Mark L. Zwick officiated at the 10:30 a.m. double ring ceremony and James Hughes was soloist for the service.

Escorted by her father to an altar enhanced with four large vases of white gladioli and carnations with twin bouquets of ivy and white glads on the side altars, the bride wore a princess style gown of white silk organza over taffeta with wide scooped neckline and long sleeves. A panel of re-embroidered Alencon lace adorned the front of the sheath skirt which had a detachable overskirt ending in a chapel length train. A petal arrangement of crystals and pearls held her hand rolled elbow-length veil of silk illusion and she carried an arrangement of white orchids, carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Robert Welsh was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Curt Brown and Miss Jo Ann Perroni. All wore street length sheath dresses of aqua silk organza over taffeta with full overskirts and pillbox headpieces complete with bouffant veils. Each carried a dark purple orchid streamer in white.

Robert Welsh served Mr. Dixon as best man. Kurt Brown and Edward Webb ushered.

Mrs. Loria wore a suit of sheer grey wool for her daughter's wedding, and the mother of the bridegroom a sheath dress of emerald green.

Following the ceremony members of the wedding party, relatives and close friends were guests at a bridal luncheon at the Voyager Motor Inn.

An evening reception for 300 guests was held at the Mural Ballroom and were registered by Miss Linda Loria of Bristolville, cousin of the bride.

A four tier white and aqua cake topped with white wedding bells centered the bride's table which was covered with white net. Three sterling silver candelabra with aqua tapers lighted the buffet table and guests danced to the music of Mike Roncone's orchestra.

From the reception the bridal pair left for a honeymoon trip through the eastern states and Canada and upon their return will reside at 5263 Old Oxford Lane, Youngstown.

The rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening at the Golden Steer Smorgasbord.

A graduate of Salem High School, the bride attended Mount Union College, Dana School of Music at Youngstown University, is a graduate of Lewis-Weinberger and Hill Academy of Cosmetology and employed as manager of Voyager Beauty Salon.

Mr. Dixon attended Choffin Electronics School and is employed by the Otis Elevator Co.

Some plants are able to thrust themselves through frozen soil in the spring.

Hoover Cites Red Influence In Negro Push

WASHINGTON (AP) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has told a congressional subcommittee that "Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement."

The transcript of his Jan. 29 testimony, made public Tuesday, does not show whether he cited any specific examples.

The Communist party, he said in his appearance before a House Appropriations subcommittee, tries to expand its influence among Negroes and particularly has "sought ways and means to exploit the Negro civil rights movement."

The Communists, Hoover said, try to use "what are often legitimate Negro complaints and grievances for the advancement of Communist objectives."

The number of Negroes who may be attracted to Communist party membership, "is not the important thing," Hoover said. He cited an old Communist principle that "communism must be built with non-Communist hands."

"We do know," he added, "that Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement and it is this influence which is vitally important. It can be the means through which large masses are caused to lose perspective on the issues involved and, without realizing it, succumb to the party's propaganda lures."

At this point in the testimony Hoover asked to speak off the record, so the hearing transcript does not show whether he was asked for, or gave, any specific instances of Communist influence among Negroes.

Hoover, reporting on the FBI's activities, also described efforts by Communists to recruit American students to their views.

The Communists, he said, have shown "considerable patience" in these efforts and sometimes finance students' college education provided they would seek government employment after graduation and cooperate with Soviet intelligence.

Check

Soviet Union was installing nuclear missiles with which it could have launched a direct attack on the United States.

It was this action which produced the crisis which was broken when Khrushchev withdrew the missiles. Soon afterward he began a slow withdrawal of the combat forces which he had introduced and U.S. officials now expect the last contingent of around 3,000 officers and men to leave in the next two or three weeks.

In preparation for their departure, as the situation is understood here, the remaining Soviet forces have been training Cuban troops in the operation and use of modern and highly efficient anti-aircraft missiles which are capable of shooting down jet planes operating at very high altitudes, including the U2. There are 24 bases for the surface-to-air missiles — SAMS — and about 500 of the missiles themselves in Cuba, according to intelligence reports.

The big question mark in official Washington is whether Khrushchev will let Castro have complete control of these weapons.

The United States sent a note through Swiss diplomatic channels to the Cuban government on March 27, the State Department confirmed Tuesday, warning that it intends to keep the reconnaissance flights going.

In a statement Monday a re-affirmed a declaration a year ago by Secretary Dean Rusk that any interruptions of the over-flights "could create a highly dangerous situation."

Monday night the Cuban government sent a note through Swiss channels back to Washington denying any U.S. right to fly planes over Cuba and saying that if a dangerous situation is created it will be U.S. responsibility.

Castro had used blunter language in a speech Sunday night. He said Cuba would no longer tolerate violations of its air space and implied that force might be used to stop over-flights.

Counties to Get Car Tag 'Bonanza'

Columbiana County will receive $536,082 when distribution of motor vehicle license money is made this week, according to State Auditor Roger W. Tracy.

Mahoning County will receive $1,293,853.

Rhodes

biana County can have an airport," the governor said.

The governor urged State Rep. Clarence (Dutch) Wetzel to organize a move to get an airport. In keeping with the theme of industry appreciation, Rhodes said, "To get and to keep industry in Columbiana County and in Salem, the county must have an airport."

Governor in Accord

Concerning the relocation of Route 62, the governor remarked: "In the last two days I've been on Rt. 62 more than anyone in this room, and whatever you say about it I'll agree."

"We're going to help you with Rt. 62," Rhodes said, adding that the passage of the $500 million bond issue would, in all probability, speed the project.

A hearing description for the Route 62 relocation in the Alliance-Salem area has been submitted to the State Highway Department headquarters in Columbus preparatory for a hearing on the project.

That hearing, which will be announced by Highway Division Engineer Clifford Newhall, will probably be held in about five weeks, The News learned.

The highway bond issue is a renewal of a 1953 tax.

"If it is passed," Rhodes said, "we can have more super highways in the state of Ohio than any other state in the union."

Discusses A&P Plant
W. A. Donahoe, the Atlantic & Pacific Co.'s Pittsburgh Division head, in discussing the company's new facilities at the south edge of Salem, congratulated the people of Salem on their foresight and work in making it possible for the A&P to locate its refrigerated warehouse here.

"There had to be the finest cooperation between individuals, as well as organizations," he said.

Donahoe stated he could not say exactly when the new plant would open but said the announcement will come in the very near future.

"Salem seems like the kind of town I would like to live in. I wish our headquarters were located here," he declared.

"I feel that when our plant hits full stride, the added employment will boost the economy in the area served by the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce," Donahoe concluded.

Donahoe introduced a delegation of visiting district AP officials including James R. Appleby, who will be manager of the warehouse.

Cites Economic Upturn
The governor said the state has "turned the corner" and is headed for higher prosperity.

"The only way we can have prosperity in Ohio is by employing the unemployed, making the non-productives productive and by lowering the relief roles," he remarked.

"And the only way we can accomplish this is by more industry which will create more jobs. And the only way we can get more industry into Ohio, is by not raising taxes," he added.

"As long as I am governor, there will be no graduate income tax on any industry or individual in the state of Ohio," he declared.

Rhodes pointed out that only the people who can really help Salem, are Salem citizens.

"Whatever you can do in this community, you can do," the governor said.

"No man is an island unto himself," said the governor in quoting Mark Twain.

"Others cannot carry the load. We must work together. We cannot exist without each other."

The invocation at the swiss steak dinner, served by the Eastern Stars, was given by the Rev. William Longworth, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Atty. Lozier Caplan, Salem Chamber president, served as toastmaster.

George W. Wilson, director of the Ohio Industrial Development Department, Richard Krabach, director of finance, and P. E. Masheter, director of the State Highway Department, who were scheduled to attend, were unable to do so.

Congressmen Pay Tribute To Kirwan

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was a heart-warming day for Rep. Michael J. Kirwan of Ohio.

The 77-year-old Democratic congressman from Youngstown found himself the subject of numerous tributes on the House floor Tuesday from party foes as well as party friends.

The bipartisan praise from 39 fellow congressmen followed publication of a newspaper column by Drek Pearson, which pictured Kirwan as a man who used his power in Congress to pay off personal scores.

Pearson was not mentioned by name in the tribute for Kirwan, but there were many references to statements in the column.

The tributes praised Kirwan for integrity, piety, warmth, honesty and helpfulness. His humble beginning as a 9-year-old slate picker in a Pennsylvania coal mine and his long road "up the hard way" were mentioned several times.

Rep. H. R. Gross, R - Iowa who has criticized Kirwan for pushing through congress a $10-million national aquarium, said:

"I have respect for him at all times as a man of honest conviction, and I am sure he has respect for me. For anyone to suggest by innuendo or otherwise that Mike Kirwan is a disreputable member of the House is not true, and I resent it."

Other tributes included: Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass.: "Mike Kirwan represents America and the opportunity that exists in our country for everyone. When we talk about Mike Kirwan, we're talking about the best, not the second best."

Rep. Jack Westland, R-Wash.: "He has a reputation second to none, and anyone who says to the contrary—the back of my hand to him."

Majority leader Carl Albert, D-Okla.: "Mike Kirwan's devotion to this country is common knowledge to every member of the House."

Rep. Clarence Brown, R-Ohio: "I've always fought fairly in politics."

editors and broadcasters visiting the White House Tuesday, said, "We think that collective bargaining is hard at work."

Johnson continued to refrain from saying what action he might take if the talks failed. He said he was proceeding on a presumption that the talks would result in a voluntary solution before the strike deadline.

Spies

Lonsdale, 40, was sentenced to 25 years imprisonment in 1961 as the mastermind of a spy ring operating at the Portland naval research establishment.

Wynne's wife, Sheila, denied that he was ill.

"He may be half the size he was when he started his sentence, but he's in splendid form" she said at her London home.

The Foreign Office said the Soviet Union proposed on April 7 to pardon Wynne if the British would free Lonsdale.

Wynne was on a business trip in Budapest in November 1962 when he was arrested by Hungarian secret police. He was tried in Moscow with Oleg Penkovsky, a Soviet official charged with selling atomic secrets to the West. Penkovsky was executed.

Wynne testified before the Soviet military court that the British intelligence service had duped him into serving as a courier. He said that for six months he never knew what was in the packages he gave to and received from Penkovsky.

Testimony at Lonsdale's trial revealed that he had penetrated the British underwater naval research plant at Portland.

Convicted with him were two Americans, Peter Kroger, 50, and his wife, Helen, 47. They were later identified as Morris and Lona Cohen.

The Cohens, who operated a powerful shortwave radio station for Soviet intelligence, were sentenced to 20 years each.

Two Britons, Harry Houghton, 56-year-old admiralty clerk, and his fiancée, Ethel Gee, 46, both received 15 years for their part in Lonsdale's ring.

Fair

Miss Universe and Miss USA as well as antique cars, an Alaskan dog team, a stagecoach, folk dancers and innumerable bands.

The official ceremonies center around the huge, hollow-ribbed globe called the Unisphere, the theme structure of the fair.

Spreading out from the Unisphere are landscaped roads to all corners of the mile-square park—with 3,500 benches for the foot-weary.

In a two-acre space park sponsored jointly by government agencies and the fair, tower the biggest collection of spacecraft ever displayed outside Cape Kennedy, Fla.

In the international area, 43 pavilions show everything from Africa's famed Watutsi dancers and drummers to a reproduction of an old Belgian village.

$2,000 Collected In Cancer Fund Drive

Approximately $2,000 toward a goal of $5,000 has been collected in the cancer fund drive here, Louis C. Moushey, co-chairman of the campaign with Rex H. Hundertmark, reported today.

Moushey said $525 was netted in the house-to-house canvass on Sunday.

Persons missed in the canvass may send contributions to Howard Schaefer at the Farmers National Bank.

The drive will continue throughout the month, Moushey said. Current receipts are expected to be augmented greatly by donations secured by the special gifts committee.

TRAPPED PINBOY

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Police were a bit skeptical of two men who said they were "looking for a friend." The pair was chopping a hole in a bowling alley roof when they gave their explanation.

House Opens Hearings on Prayer Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—A leader in the fight against the Supreme Court's school prayer decision said today "a fraternity of cynics" seeks to sever all national ties to religion.

Rep. Frank J. Becker, R-N.Y., sponsor of a proposed constitutional amendment that would permit prayers and Bible reading in public schools, urged its speedy adoption by Congress.

Becker was the first witness at House Judiciary Committee hearings which he has been demanding ever since the June 1963 court decision outlawing official public school prayers.

At least 60 members of Congress and about 75 church and public witnesses are expected to testify at the hearings, which probably will last more than a month.

Becker, who has traveled over the country urging support for his proposed amendment, and who helped stir up one of the most massive mail campaigns in its favor ever to hit Capitol Hill, said the issue raised is the most important Congress can face.

"The welfare and the entire future of our beloved America depend upon how we handle the most dynamic tradition in our national life—dependence upon Almighty God," he said in a prepared statement.

Those who pressed the issue that was finally resolved by the Supreme Court, he said, are determined to "create a feeling that a tribute to God in relation to the affairs of our nation is a misdemeanor, if not a crime."

Many church leaders have spoken out in opposition to Becker's proposed amendment.

Becker did not refer to them, but noting the heavy outpouring of mail supporting his position, he said: "If we ignore the compulsion which comes from the hearts of the people concerning this matter, we will be put in the position of throwing off the switch which connects a central dynamo to the lights of a great nation."

Time

Ohio River. The maverick is Chesapeake in Lawrence County in southernmost Ohio.

Along Lake Erie, the daylight saving belt extends from Ashtabula County on the Pennsylvania border through Lake and Cuyahoga counties, almost all of Lorain County and a little bit into Sandusky County.

Along the eastern Ohio border, the counties on fast time will be—besides Ashtabula — Trumbull, Mahoning, Columbiana, Jefferson, Belmont, Monroe and Washington.

Other counties in the belt are a little piece of the northeast corner of Huron, about two-thirds of Wayne, about a third of Tuscarawas, almost all of Harrison, and all of Geauga, Medina, Summit, Portage, Stark and Carroll.

If Sandusky voters approve at the May 5 primary, that city will change to daylight saving May 30.

Marion's plan to switch in May was upset by a call for a referendum by voters in the November election, and unless the city council can pass an emergency ordinance Marion will remain on regular time this year.

Most of the fast time communities will switch back to regular time Oct. 25. Barnesville, Belpre, Beverly, Chesapeake, Marietta and St. Clairsville will return Sept. 27.

contractor. Samples of codified ordinances were studied by council in view of eventually incorporating Columbiana's ordinances in the same manner at a later date.

Clerk George Snook read an ordinance for the transfer of $3,000 from the service fund, park and cemetery appropriation, to the park fund, employee appropriation for payment of current expenses. The measure passed.

Council also passed a resolution accepting the bid of Edward S. Susany of Petersburg for construction of the addition to the water and electric building on S. West St. at a cost of $8,093. This was the third advertisement of the bid.

demonstrate against the Louisiana pavilion," Farmer said.

Farmer, who was jailed in Louisiana last summer, said he intended only to exhibit the cattle prod and not to use it.

At least 1,000 CORE members had entered the grounds within an hour after the fair opened.

Leaflets handed to the inside demonstrators by CORE leaders admonished them against carrying any sharp instruments, even nail files.

The plan for the stall-in had been for drivers to let their cars run out of gasoline on the fair approaches.

The first to be towed away, however, had two flat tires.

The City Transit Authority posted at least one guard in each subway car to prevent the pulling of emergency cords.

Heavy details of police and two cars were posted at all bridges and tunnels.

erstorm Tuesday afternoon that dumped more than a half inch of rain in an hour and caused some flooded streets. Hail fell in Parma west of Cleveland and in Garfield Heights on the East Side. Power was knocked out for a short time in Lakewood after lightning struck some transformers on a pole.

The Highway Patrol Tuesday night said about 45 roads were closed, most of them in the southeastern part of the state. The patrol added that many of them probably would be open by this morning.

High water was reported in various parts of the state as the storms, which began over the weekend and continued Monday and Tuesday, swelled streams and rivers.

The Ohio River was rising but was expected to crest at 40 feet by tonight, well below the 52-foot flood stage. The Little Miami had already crested without flooding, but the Scioto was rising and was expected to flood some farmland.

The Blanchard River was flooding parts of the Findlay area after nearly four inches of rain since Saturday.

High water also was reported in parts of Athens, Delaware, Licking, Logan and Morrow counties.

The Hocking River was reported more than a foot over the 17-foot flood stage.

The Scioto River was expected to crest from two to six feet above flood stage along its length by Thursday morning, and the Sandusky River was to crest a little above flood stage this afternoon.

Advice to car owners on how to get more in trade!

When they tell you it's not the first cost that counts, but the upkeep too — that's not the whole story either. Read on . . . When you visit our showroom and chat with one of our salesmen you're really just talking with another car owner. There's not a man on our staff who isn't a car buyer himself, with the same interest in getting the most for his money as you. He knows your side of the story! And here it is . . .

First you want the best deal you can get when you buy.

He'll explain to you our Spring sale of '64 Comets and how it can save you lots of money right off the bat. It's merely a matter of sales volume. Comet sales are up—94% over a year ago,* and still climbing. So we're keeping prices down at rock-bottom to keep our sales sky-high.

Next you want economy every mile you drive.

And don't think because a car saves you money by the mile that it's a "dog." Matter of fact, the '64 Comet is the World's 100,000-Mile Durability Champion (each member of a team went that distance recently at Daytona, averaging over 105 mph for the course!). The point is Comets have a host of built-in service-saving features to give economy new meaning!

And finally — you want the most in trade when the time comes.

Well—now we come to the happy ending of our story. For high resale is Comet's language! This one has the tradition of record high resale — one of the hottest items in demand on anybody's used car lot. Yes, if you want to know how to get more in trade—start with a Comet in the first place! And the first place to come for that is here!

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Health Questions And Answers

Q—You have stated that there is a simple test which consists of placing a piece of treated paper on a urine-soaked diaper to indicate the presence or absence of albumin.

Our doctor and the local pharmacist say they have not heard of this test. Please tell me what it is called.

A—One company that makes these test papers calls them Urinix (Ames). I'm sure your doctor can get them for you.

Q—You stated recently that a positive tuberculin test indicates immunity. My doctor says this is not always the case.

A—There may be exceptions to almost any statement of this kind. I said that "if a person's test is positive, it may mean that he has some active tuberculosis." As a result he may be in the process of building up an immunity or he may indeed have an infection so overwhelming that he cannot overcome it.

A positive reaction is also seen in those whose infection has long since burnt itself out. In other words, the positive reaction means that at one time or another the subject has harbored the tubercle bacillus in his body. When properly interpreted this is a very valuable test.

Q—In a recent column you said there were drugs that are effective against tuberculosis. What are they and can they be bought freely?

A—The earliest of these was the antibiotic, streptomycin. Isoniazid, para-aminosalicylic acid and ethionamide have been added to the list. These drugs are obtainable only on a doctor's prescription.

Q—What would cause me to have a lot of saliva in my mouth all the time? Sometimes it gags me.

A—There are many causes of salivation. These include excessive smoking, diseases of the mouth and gums, anything that causes nausea and several drugs, notably compounds of arsenic, bismuth, mercury, lead, cadmium and thallium. A deficiency of vitamin B and of thyroid function are possible causes. After your doctor has tracked down the cause, the appropriate treatment should be easy.

Q—After three months' rest for rheumatic fever, I have gone back to work. Now the same symptoms are returning. Do I still have rheumatic fever? Will it harm me to keep on working?

A—The progress of your disease is determined by examining your heart and getting the sedimentation rate of your red blood cells. Your symptoms, whatever they are, would have to be taken into account but are not as important as the other considerations. If these tests further treatment.

'FORGED' ART — Take 25 pieces of forgings and castings and then get a sculptor of the caliber of Henry Burzynski of Pittsburgh, Pa. You may get as novel a steel man as the Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp. got when they tried it.

DOWN on the FARM

Wheat Signups Set
Columbiana County signups for new wheat program are scheduled May 1-15.

The price support loan level, certificate values and acreage diversion payment rates for the 1964 wheat program have been announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The program is voluntary. A farmer, whether he agrees to participate or not, is free to sell his entire production to anyone, at any time, and at such prices as he can get. There are no restrictions on sales of 1964 wheat crop.

A producer desiring to receive a price-support loan, certificates and acreage diversion payment, can voluntarily sign up to participate and become a cooperator, according to Clifford Shaw, ASCS office manager.

He can cooperate by: Staying within his 1964 acreage allotment which already has had the minimum qualifying acreage diversion deducted. (He can divert additional acreage if he wishes; growers were notified of 1964 allotments last spring.)

Devoting to conserving use all the diverted land (in addition to maintaining the normal acreage in conserving use.)

Not exceeding acreage in any other allotment crop on the farm, and not exceeding the wheat allotment on any other farm in which he has interest in the wheat.

A cooperating wheat producer will be eligible for a price-support loan at a national average of $1.30 per bushel on his entire production. In addition, he will receive negotiable certificates based on the normal production of his eligible acreage planted for harvest. The certificates will have fixed face values—70 cents per bushel for the domestic marketing certificates, covering the producer's share in the national marketing allocation for U. S. food wheat production; and 25 cents per bushel for the export marketing certificates, covering his share of the export marketing allocation.

Forty-five percent of the normal wheat production of the farm allotment if planted will be covered by domestic wheat marketing certificates and up to 45 per cent by export wheat marketing certificates. In case of underplanting or extra diversion, certificates will be issued first on the "domestic" portion and then on the remaining "export" portion covered by certificates.

Growers last year were notified of their 1964 allotments along with their farm's normal yield figures. Farm allotments were based on the national allotment of 49 1/2 million acres. Thus, individual allotments now are already reduced by the acreage required to be diverted for minimum participation in the wheat program for 1964 recently enacted by congress, Shaw said.

Farm Families' Wealth

An Ohio State University rural sociologist has concluded that more than one of every three Ohio farm families can be classified as poor on the basis of annual cash income.

Dr. John B. Mitchell, the extension specialist, said families with incomes of less than $3,000 a year "are considered to be living in poverty under definitions set by the economic report of the President recently submitted to Congress."

A sixth of all families in Ohio, he said, fall into this category, as compared with a fifth of all families in the United States.

Mitchell explains that, of Ohio's 2.5 million families in 1959, nearly 16 per cent reported incomes of under $3,000 in the 1960 U.S. census. This included nearly 250,000 urban families, 91,000 rural non-farm families, and 47,000 rural farm families.

The latter, he said, represents

PATH OF DESTRUCTION — To make it harder for people to flee East Berlin, Communist authorities are dynamiting houses along the Berlin Wall. The idea is to give armed guards a better view of the Communist-created no-man's-land.

35 per cent of all rural families, while the percentages for other groups were 18 per cent of the rural non-farm, 13.5 per cent of the urban, and 15.7 per cent of all families.

Miss Immel also received $1,000 in cash for a winning essay on citizenship in a recent contest. She plans to major in journalism at Wooster College. Her parents are Rev. and Mrs. Ivan Immel of Heidelberg College, Tiffin.

Memory Lane

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Forget now. There's always time to worry about it later.

Let's take another walk down Memory Lane, a sentimental stroll back through the time that was—years of glory and dream that passed our way but once.

Remember when?

Girls carried their coins knotted in the end of a handkerchief.

Farming was a long duel between the purpose of a man and the stubbornness of a flop-eared mule.

Every ambitious American's goal was to found a small business of his own—and then make it grow bigger.

An intellectual radical was a fellow who bragged publicly in the barber shop while getting his hair cut on Saturday night that he believed in the theory of evolution, and that there were worse things in life than having apes for cousins on your family tree.

Men worked so hard they worried more about their feet than women do now. They took off their shoes at every opportunity.

What real estate dealers now call family rooms or dens were then known as rumpus rooms—usually just a glamorized place in the basement.

A big spender was a guy who bought 10-cent cigars on pay-days instead of the usual six-for-a-quarter brand; a sport was a fellow who could light a kitchen match with his thumbnail instead of striking it on the seat of his pants.

A well-to-do family in a small town had one dog; a poor family had two; a shiftless family might have up to half a dozen.

A banker would have thought you were out of your head if you asked for a personal loan in order to go on a vacation trip.

Americans thought the English dreadfully quaint and inefficient because they had "tea breaks" twice a day during office working hours.

The nation had more barns than garages.

The best known form of automation was the penny gum machine.

A girl who wore mascara at a dance usually was planning to leave town anyway.

You could always draw a big crowd at a county fair by holding a flagpole sitting contest—or announcing that William Jennings Bryan would speak.

Those were the days! Remember?

By ETTA MAE ALEXANDER

Mrs. Kenneth Apple of Canton Road was elected president of Lincoln School Parent-Teachers Association at the combined McKinley and Lincoln School PTA meeting Monday evening at Lincoln School.

Mrs. Wilford Culler is the retiring president.

Others elected for the 1964-65 school year are Mrs. Anthony Rubino, first vice president; Mrs. Albert Pastore, second vice president; Mrs. Peter Cibula, secretary; and Mrs. Courtney Pennell, treasurer.

A panel discussion concerning the 1964-65 school budget and the proposed cut-backs was the evening's program. A question and answer period followed. William Haffley, Edwin Kauffman and Atty. Richard Kennedy, members of the school board, and Supt. Oliver Payne composed the panel.

New officers of both Lincoln and McKinley Schools will be installed at the combined meeting May 18. Mrs. Roger James is the newly elected president of McKinley PTA.

WEST POINT GRANGE will meet Friday for its annual inspection. Each family is asked to bring cookies or other food for the evening's refreshments.

The juvenile grange degree team will practice Thursday evening, at 6 at the grange hall.

The Eagles Auxiliary is sponsoring a drive for funds for three-year-old Billy Koffell, who was severely burned in an accident at his home March 27.

Canisters have been placed in a number of business places.

Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Koffell of W. Maple St., is a patient in Children's Hospital, Columbus, where he is undergoing treatment and skin grafts for first, second and third degree burns of his body, legs and arms.

Churchill Cackle Club met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Hoy of S. Lincoln Ave. Mrs. Ernest Reisinger was a guest.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Laurence, Mrs. William Grate, and Mrs. Reisinger.

The club will meet May 18 with Mrs. Russell Reynolds of Caldwell Ave.

School Board Urged To Quit by Ministers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Some 200 Protestant and Jewish clergymen have asked the seven-member Cleveland Board of Education to quit in the wake of a school boycott which, they said, was "the ultimate repudiation" of the board.

The clergymen, members of the Emergency Clergy Committee for Civil Rights, vowed on Tuesday night to continue fasting each Tuesday until satisfied with the board's action in Cleveland's school integration dispute.

"The events of recent days, in Cleveland, must be interpreted as an overwhelming vote of no confidence in the Cleveland Board of Education," the committee said in a statement.

Girard Visits Here Friday

Ritchie, Hutson Sweep 4 Events

By MARK W. MILLER
News Sports Editor

Coach Karl Zeller's Salem track team rolled to its fourth victory of the season, an easy 92-26 triumph over Youngstown Ursuline, at Reilly Stadium on Tuesday.

Girard is slated to appear here Friday afternoon, then the Quakers will remain idle until the Mentor Relays May 2.

The return of Frank Fitch to the squad promises to aid the Quakers considerably.

Given permission by his doctor only a few days ago to compete, Fitch entered the meet yesterday and won the high jump, clearing the bar at 5 feet, 6 inches.

A senior, the athlete had been plagued with a painful back injury received during last season. He was hurt while pole vaulting in a dual meet.

JOHN TARLETON, the Red and Black's distance specialist, was kept out of the mile run to see what he could do in the 880-yard race.

The track was sluggish because of the heavy rainfall the past couple of days, but Tarleton outtraced everyone to the tape in an impressive 2:05.9.

Tom Pim, who finished second in the half mile, staved off a late rush by Ursuline's Tom Leahy to win the mile by about two yards in 4:46.2. The Irish star came in in 4:47.2.

All of the events except the discus throw were won by Salem. Ed Tomoskovich threw the platter 125 feet, 4 1/4 inches for his first place.

Sprinter Tim Hutson took both dashes. He was timed in 10.4 for the century and 23.1 for the 220-yard event.

KIRK RITCHIE, showing improvement in the hurdles, breezed the high timbers in 16.5 seconds, and pranced to a 21.7 mark in the 180-yard lows.

Dick Brown and sophomore Joe Judge of the Quakers both cleared 10 feet in the pole vault, but Brown was awarded first place because he had fewer misses at lower heights.

Sophomore Jim Windram, hampered by a knee injury early in the campaign, has completely recovered, and is again the number-one broad jumper on the squad.

He took the event with a leap of 18 feet, 7 1/4 inches yesterday. He has done better than 19 feet on a couple of occasions.

The personal duel in the shot put between Salem teammates Larry Earley and Bill Hart, both seniors, may provide the Quakers with the best one-two punch in the district before the season ends.

After losing to Hart a week ago, Earley retaliated to win the event yesterday by heaving the iron ball 47 feet, 5 1/4 inches. Hart's best effort this season has been a toss of 46 feet, 10 inches.

Art Spack, a member of the winning mile relay team, easily won the 400-yard dash in 54 seconds.

Salem swept all three places in the quarter-mile and half-mile runs, and finished first and second in the two hurdle races, the shot put and pole vault.

Battistelli defeated United's Gene Metzgar in both distance races. Lane was first in the broad jump and 180-yard low hurdles.

Seniors Roger Diddle and Warren Bradley led Beaver Local to a 71-47 victory over visiting Canfield in a dual track meet Tuesday night.

Diddle and Bradley each capped 15 1/2 points as the victors swept first in 10 of the 14 events.

In addition, Diddle copped the century with a time of 10.6 and the 220-yard dash with a time of 25 seconds.

Bradley copped both hurdle events, running the lows in 16.3 seconds and the highs in 22.8 seconds.

Sophomore Larry Roberts, who broke the Beaver Local shot put earlier in the year with a heave of 40 feet, broke his own mark last night when he hurled the ball 43 feet, one and one-half inches.

Bosox Put Waiver On Hurler Conley

BALTIMORE (AP) — Gene Conley, the longtime multiple job major leaguer, is unemployed.

The Boston Red Sox have aived for $1 the 6-foot-8 giant with an ailing pitching arm and an estimated $28,000 price tag.

"Conley no longer figures in our pitching plans," Manager Johnny Pesky said Tuesday night in making the announcement. "We are going with the younger pitchers. Conley said his arm was okay but we knew it wasn't."

"I still think I can do some club a lot of good," Conley said from his Foxboro, Mass., home in obvious disappointment. "I am not ready to quit yet."

Indians Spoil Athletics Opener 5-3

Wagner's Home Run Triggers Tribe Triumph; Pirates Romp

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Charles Finley doesn't need a pennant porch. He needs a right fielder on stilts.

Finley's right fielder, Rocky Colavito, had all the other equipment, a glove, spikes and a wedding gown white uniform, but without the stilts he just couldn't handle Leon Wagner's high, towering homer that triggered Cleveland to a 5-3 victory over Kansas City Tuesday night.

The Indians' victory ruined the A's home debut and spoiled the coming out party for the porch, but in no way dimmed the festivities. A few more innovations from Finley and Kansas City could have held its own World's Fair.

There were these attractions provided by the A's owner for the 28,165 on hand in multi-hued Municipal Stadium:

—The A's, dressed in their alternate uniforms of wedding gown white, trimmed in Ft. Knox gold with Kelly green sleeves.

—A battery of 60 green and gold lights and three loud horns, set to go off for every A's homer in place of the fireworks the city has banned Finley from using.

—The outfield walls, painted green and gold and splashed with question marks where white lettering compared fence distances with New York's Yankee Stadium.

—The porch, an area in right field that reduces the dimensions of Municipal Stadium, bringing them more in line with the distances at Yankee Stadium.

The A's looked sharp. The outfield walls were informative. And the lights worked. But the porch didn't.

Finley built the porch to catch the A's homers. It was bigger originally, but didn't conform to baseball rules and was whittled down in size. It stood there backoning Tuesday night — but all three homers hit eluded it.

Meanwhile, homers were hit all over Wrigley Field in Chicago, Pittsburgh defeating the Cubs 8-5 on Gene Freese's pinch-hit homer in the ninth inning — the ninth homer of the game.

In the only other games played, Cincinnati walloped

Houston 10-5 with a 16-hit attack and Detroit whipped the Los Angeles Angels 6-4.

The Philadelphia at New York and Washington and Minnesota games were rained out.

Wagner came up in the eighth with the Indians trailing 2-1 and slammed his homer, far over Finley's porch. Diego Segui, the losing pitcher, had shot Kansas City into the lead with a homer in the seventh.

In the ninth, the lights flashed again when Bill Bryan homered for the A's, but Ted Abernathy came on to preserve Jim Grant's triumph.

Freese's three-run shot capped a homer derby that left the two teams one shy of the National League single game record. Roberto Clemente, Dick Schofield and Jim Pagliaroni also homered for the Pirates while Jimmy Stewart, Andre Rodgers, Ron Santo, Billy Cowan and Billy Williams connected for the Cubs.

Four of Chicago's homers were off Vern Law. Roy Face got the victory while Fred Norman lost it.

Vada Pinson cracked two singles and a triple, Pete Rose collected a double and two singles and Chico Ruiz hit an inside-the-park homer as the Reds belted the Colts.

Cincinnati starter Jim O'Toole was forced to leave after six innings because of a bruise on his pitching hand from a shot off Pete Runnels' bat and John Tsiouris finished up. Jim Owens took the loss.

Frank Lary, Larry Sherry and Phil Regan collaborated on the pitching for the Tigers, limiting the Angels to six hits. Sherry got the victory with three hitless innings.

MADE UP FIVE SHOTS

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Credit for making up the biggest deficit by a winner in the final round of a tournament during the 1963 Professional Golfers Association (PGA) tour went to Billy Casper.

Casper overcame a five-stroke handicap to nose out George Bayer in the Insurance City Open.

SEARS DAYS

The Olympic games are not scheduled until this fall but you can't convince the employees at Sears, Roebuck and Co.'s store in Salem that they haven't already started.

The sports spectacle stated to be held in Tokyo sets the theme for the Store's employe contest during this year's "Sears Days Sale." The color and flourish of the international meet have been adapted to what is traditionally the biggest sales event of the spring season.

Mr. Ed. Mathews, assistant manager, has been delegated "Sales Coach" and has worked long and hard getting a championship selling team in shape, said Mr. L. M. Manieri, store manager and "Sales Chairman." Mr. Manieri also commented that Mr. Ed Mathews has put together an outstanding array of winning merchandise values in every department.

"Sales Captains" will be the store's division managers, who will lead their staff in an effort to break all previous records.

The four day festival opens Wednesday, April 22, and continues through Saturday, April 25. There will be a special hold over day on Monday, April 27, for our customers who cannot visit our store this week-end.

"We are going to re-write the record books because this sale is as great as its name," said Mr. Mathews.

Nocero Brothers' Horse Has Never Won A Race

UnHeralded, Admiral Heart Entered In Derby Trail

By KELSO STURGEON
Associated Press Sports Writer
LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Admiral's Heart, a sickly, boney, little colt who was purchased as an undernourished yearling for $500, is listed at 1,000-1 in the Kentucky Derby Future Book, but this means nothing to his owners.

The Nocero brothers, six of them in all, have made up their minds to send Admiral's Heart in the Kentucky Derby—if they can keep him in good health for the May 2 Run for the Roses. Admiral's Heart made the second start of his career Tuesday at Keeneland and finished a tired fourth in a six-furlong event for 3 and 4-year-olds which have never won a race. In the only other start of his career, he finished last, beaten 22 lengths last Sept. 23 at Latonia.

But this has done nothing to dim the spirit and enthusiasm of the brothers six—Rinzy, Roger, Boniface (just call him Joe), Macistro, Carmen and Rudy.

"We're happy with what he did," said Roger Nocero, who trains the colt, as he reviewed Tuesday's race. "He had the lead for a while—which isn't bad considering he's been sick and off his feed."

Roger, getting some help from Rinzy, a muscle-bound former prize fighter who would think twice about before sassing, explained that the Admiral came down with a virus about a week ago and hasn't been feeling so good.

"But we think it's all cleared up now," he said. "We're going to watch him close—and if he's okay—we plan to send him back in the Derby Trial next Tuesday and then the Derby."

"I'm just anxious to see how he breaks against those big-shot colts," said Rinzy, explaining the horse was bred for both speed and distance. Admiral's Heart is a son of Blue Admiral-Sis Kiss by Seven Hearts.

The brothers plan to split the Derby expenses for the colt—which could run as high as $1,800-$1,900, including starting fees. And Rinzy is quick to point out that they're all glad to do it.

The brothers are from Park Hills, Ky., a northern Kentucky community near Cincinnati. Rinzy and Roger own a liquor store and Joe and Macistro own a grocery and meat market. Rudy is a professional dancer in New York, while Carmen manages a drug store in that city.

55 Apply For Coaching

Jobs At West Branch

A total of 55 coaches applied for two coaching openings at West Branch High School, according to a tally made after the closing date for applications Monday.

Executive head Clinton Heacock said 33 men have applied for the grid coaching job and 22 for the basketball coaching position. Of these, 17 football coaches and eight basketball coaches were interviewed by the screening committee.

The choices for both positions are to be made next Tuesday night when the committee makes its recommendations to the Board of Education.

BEST IS PERFECT

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—

The best season Coach Adolph Rupp ever had at the University of Kentucky came in 1954 when his basketball team won all 25 games.

Toledo Boxer McClure Wins Over Alford

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Wilbert (Skeeter) McClure, eighth-ranked middleweight from Toledo, wore down the aggressive Clarence (Jet) Alford of Cleveland to gain a split decision in the main event at the Akron Armory Tuesday night.

McClure, the 1960 Olympic champ, boxed well in the eighth and 10th rounds when he staggered Alford with a barrage of lefts. Alford scored well in the early rounds when he was still fresh.

Referee Ronnie Delaney voted for Alford, 99-96. Judge Tom Maxwell voted for McClure, 98-95, and Judge Nate Bridges had it for McClure, 100-92.

In other bouts Tuesday night, Amos Johnson of Medina, scored a second-round knockout over Mert Brownfield of Pittsburgh, Fate Davis, an Akron welterweight, belted Carl Jordan of Pittsburgh freely until the referee halted the fight in the eighth, and Willie McMillan of Detroit unanimously outpointed Jimmy Christopher of Toledo.

Wings Take 3-2 Edge In NHL Playoffs

TORONTO (AP)—Manager Coach Sid Abel expressed new confidence that his Detroit Red Wings would go all the way after scoring a 2-1 victory over Toronto in the National Hockey League Stanley Cup playoff finals Tuesday night.

The triumph gave the Red Wings a 3-2 edge in the best-of-seven series which returns to Detroit Thursday night. A seventh and deciding game, if necessary, will be played at Toronto to Saturday night.

"For perhaps the first time in the series I feel really confident we can take them," Abel said. "We came out fast in the first period and beat them to the puck all the way except for the final period."

The eventual winning goal was scored early in the third period by Eddie Joyal. He took a perfect pass from Andre Prokhorov and rammed the puck through Toronto goalie Johnny Bower's legs.

Barons Go After 3rd Playoff Win

It's back to home ice for the Cleveland Barons tonight and Saturday as they resume their drive for the American Hockey League title in the Calder Cup finals against the Quebec Aces.

The Clevelanders have a 2-0 lead in the best of a seven game series. The Barons posted 4-2, and 5-4 victories in the first two games at Quebec. Cleveland is seeking its first AHL crown since 1957.

Despite the two game edge, and the fact that his club will have the home advantage the next two games, Coach Fred Glover is doubly worried about the Aces' attack. "Their backs are up against the wall," said Glover, "and they'll be shooting the works against us. We can't afford to look back and rest on our accomplishments, not even for a second."

The Barons have registered seven straight victories in the playoffs. Cleveland fans will be rooting for No. 8 Wednesday as well as pulling for Center Joe Szura to continue his record-setting scoring pace. Szura has bagged an amazing 13 goal total in the seven playoff games.

Unusual Horse Race Set At Ascot Park

Ascot Park will be the scene of Ohio's most unusual horse race, the famous Tin Cup on Thursday. Horses will literally be running "for peanuts" in this event, with the victor netting some cash, the world's largest racing trophy and a 100 pound sack of peanuts. The lowly peanut is believed to be an omen of ill fortune on the turf and is regarded as an appropriate award for this "Hard Luck Handicap."

Entry in the Tin Cup is limited to Thoroughbreds which have not won a race in 1964, and to those unfortunate owners whose colorbearers have not scored at the current meeting. The Tin Cup itself is a four foot high trophy modeled after the old fashioned drinking utensils.

The field will travel one mile and one sixteenth in quest of the winner's portion of a $1,100 purse, but every starter will receive some cash. Weekday post time at the suburban Akron track is now 2:05 p.m.

Pros Would Like To Cut PGA Tour From 45 to 30 Tourneys

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP)—A quarter of a century ago a sports columnist hard up for material would yank an old acorn out of the fire and dash off a letter to mothers in the land.

"Don't rear your son to be a golf professional," he would advise, "unless you want him to starve to death."

It was sound counsel. There was only a handful of tournaments. Prize money totaled no more than $10,000, with top prize around $2,000. The leading money winner made between $8,000 and $10,000, which was quickly eaten up in travel expenses and caddy fees. Only three or four broke better than even. Most of the players struggled along on hamburger money.

Today a columnist searching for a rainy day idea would be compelled to change the tone of his imaginary letter to the nation's mothers. Playing on the golf tour has become more lucrative than working for General Motors.

There is one problem. The tour is getting too big and unwieldy. There is talk of breaking the tour into two groups—sort of major and minor league.

Also, some of the players, particularly the more prosperous ones such as Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, are urging a curtailment of the major tournament schedule. Instead of 45 tournaments, they'd prefer 30.

This is one of the headaches facing the Professional Golfers Association as it takes over its new $4 million headquarters here on Florida's gold coast.

Last year, players competed for $2,349,000 in prize money in 45 official tournaments. Arnold Palmer got the most of the loot—a record $128,230. Jack Nicklaus, in second place, earned $100,040. Indicative of how times have changed for the better is the fact that 14 players earned $30,000 and better, 40 made more than $19,000.

One of the strongest proponents of the double tour is Fred Corcoran, former tournament director of the PGA and now director of the International Golf Association.

Corcoran suggests that the major tour be limited to 100 or 125 leading players with the lapover 125 lesser lights confined to a secondary circuit. Players in the minors would have to earn their way to the big time.

The idea has drawn a strong objection from Jim Gaquin, current tournament manager for the PGA.

"It is true that our fields are getting tremendously large, with around 250 players competing on the winter tour," Gaquin said. "But we believe it impractical both to launch a minor tour and also to cut our schedule."

10 Amateurs To Compete In Cleveland Open Event

CLEVELAND, Ohio — A tournament within a tournament—for amateur golfers only—was announced today by Paul Warren, general manager of the $110,000 Cleveland Open championship at the Highland Park course the week of June 22. Only amateurs with handicaps of 5 or lower are eligible.

The amateur contingent will be limited to 10 players who will compete among themselves through the full 72 holes, starting Thursday, June 25 through Sunday, June 28. Last year amateurs were thrown into the pro field. Four played but none survived the 36-hole cutoff.

"There are a lot of fine amateurs interested, especially public links players who regularly play Highland Park and score well," explained Warren. "We would like to accommodate them but it isn't reasonable to ask them to compete on the same terms with the great pro players. Besides, the amateurs, even if they scored well, can't accept prize money."

There will be separate prizes for the amateurs.

Amateurs who competed in the 1963 inaugural of the $110,000 tournament (won by Arnold Palmer in a three-man playoff) were Ed Preisler, exempt from qualifying as the home club champion, and Bill Petersen, Jim Hildebrand and Bobby Litter Jr., who won places in the qualifier, competing against the pros.

The amateurs will qualify for the 10 places Monday, June 22, at the same time the pros will be qualifying for whatever places remain in the championship field after the invited stars and PGA-approved players are entered. The pro contingent will be limited to 149, so, with the 10 amateurs, the official starting field for the tournament will total 159 players.

Entry fee for the tournament is $100. Those players, pro or amateur, who fail to qualify for the 72-hole championship will get a refund of $50. Entries are to be sent to the Cleveland Open Golf Tournament, 1307 East Ohio Building, Cleveland.

Speaking of Filibusters...

Today's Pros Put Past Masters to Shame

Robert La Follette Sr.
18 Hours, 23 MinutesHuey "Kingfish" Long
15 Hours, 30 MinutesStrom Thurmond
24 Hours, 18 Minutes

By TOM NOLAN
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Unlike the traditional one-man filibuster shows in the past, this year's talkathon by southern Democratic senators is a smoothly organized, determined team effort by a group of professionals who would turn a past master such as Huey Long green with envy. But it is doubtful if any present politicians could match the old masters, man for man.

This year's may turn out to be the longest filibuster in the chamber's history.

FOUR YEARS AGO the southern talkers for 37 days, including nine days of around-the-clock sessions on a comparatively simple bill to perfect the 1957 measure of voting rights. This year's bill is much more complex—enough to keep the southerners going for months.

The first senator to practice the art of talking to obstruct legislation to any great degree was John Randolph of Virginia.

Elected to the Senate in 1825 to fill an unexpired term, Randolph was a staunch anti-administration man. He consistently referred to President John Quincy Adams in terms of contempt, and often showed up in riding boots and breeches, totting pearl-handled pistols.

One of the greatest filibusters in Senate history was Robert M. La Follette Sr., of Wisconsin. In 1908, he spoke for 18 hours, 23 minutes in an attempt to defeat a bill allowing banks to issue currency on security other than government bonds. His record stood for three decades.

THE MODERN image of a Senate filibuster stems from the legendary one-man stands of Benjamin R. "Pitchfork Ben" Tillman, of South Carolina, and Louisiana's Huey "Kingfish" Long.

Pitchfork Ben in 1903 made the Senate capitulate and include in an appropriation bill a South Carolina claim of $47,000 for expenses incurred in the War of 1812 by threatening to read Lord Byron's poetry until adjournment the next day. The banner year for the Kingfish was 1935. In April of that year he launched a talkathon to prevent a joint session of Congress from hearing President Roosevelt read his bonus veto.

In the course of his tirade against FDR, Long mentioned Tennessee, causing Sen. Kenneth McKellar, D-Tenn., to jump up and shout:

"I think the senator had better let Tennessee alone!"

The galleries roared their approval and were promptly admonished by the presiding officer. This caused Sen. Alben Barkley, D-Ky., to interrupt:

"I appeal to the Chair not to be too harsh. When people go to the circus they ought to be allowed to laugh at the monkey."

One month later Long was at it again, speaking against an amendment to extend the National Industrial Recovery Act.

For 15 hours, the Senate—once described by John C. Calhoun as incomparable in the history of legislature for its "dignity and decorum" of debate—listened to the Kingfish's theories on the frying of oysters and the making of "pot likker."

At one point Long interrupted himself to request that every senator be made to stay and listen to him. Vice President John Nance Garner, presiding, almost turned purple as he roared:

"In the opinion of the chair, that would be cruel and unusual punishment, as forbidden in the Bill of Rights!"

Long finally surrendered when he was denied a "gentleman's" quorum call to go visit the toilette.

TODAY'S CROPS of senators is noted for several champion talkers: Allen Ellender, D-La., who spoke for 12 hours, 19 minutes in 1949 against a limitation on Senate debate Wayne Morse, D-Ore., who stood on his feet for 22 hours, 26 minutes to argue against a pending offshore oil bill, and Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., who walked off with the record of 24 hours, 18 minutes against civil rights in 1957.

Chances are slim that the backers of this, the present rights bill, will be able to invoke cloture—a device preventing unlimited talk. Voting in the Senate is needed for cloture.

Cloture was demanded, and secured, in 1917 by an angry President Woodrow Wilson after "12 willful men" led by Senator La Follette Sr. filibustered his bill to arm merchant ships against German submarines.

There have been 25 cloture votes since. Only five were carried.

IT IS NOT LIKELY that the southerners will be worn down by physical exhaustion this time. The 18 southerners have been organized into three platoons by their leader, Sen. Richard Russell, of Georgia.

In a round-the-clock session, a platoon serves only every third day, and each member only has to talk four hours.

Once again, it appears that the Senate will be forced to admit that it isn't who gets there fustiest with the mostest, but who ges here las with the most words.

Please That Meat, Potatoes Man

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

This is the moment any cook can please a man: there's plenty of beef around. Production of that favorite food is setting records.

Good beef deserves home-cooked mashed potatoes. Because the late spring crop of long white potatoes is here, you may want to use them in the following recipe for real old-fashioned creamy, fluffy potatoes cooked perfectly.

OLD-FASHIONED MASHED POTATOES

Two and one-half pounds medium potatoes, boiling water, 3 teaspoons salt, 1/4 cup butter or margarine, soft, hot milk, 1/4 teaspoon white pepper.

Peel potatoes; cut into cross-wise halves; cut each half into quarters. Boil potatoes in a covered saucepan with 1 inch of boiling water and the salt until tender; drain if necessary. Put drained potatoes through a ricer or mash until smooth; beat in butter. Gradually beat in enough hot milk to make fluffy. Beat in pepper. Serve at once. Makes 8 servings.

With Onion: Cook and mash potatoes as above. Cook 2 tabiespoons of minced onion in the butter until the onion is transparent and add to mashed potatoes before adding hot milk and pepper.

With Chives or Parsley: Prepare Old-Fashioned Mashed Potatoes; stir in 2 tablespoons minced fresh chives or parsley.

With Bacon: Cook 3 strips of bacon, drain and crumble; reserve 2 tablespoons of the bacon fat and add to mashed potatoes prepared as above along with 2 tablespoons of butter instead of the cup. Add the hot milk and pepper, then stir in the crumbled bacon.

tinued beating until mixture begins to lose its gloss and a small amount holds a soft peak when dropped from spoon. Mix in vanilla and pecans. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto wax paper. Makes about 1 1/4 pounds.

NUTTY APPLE CHICKEN BREASTS (Serves 6)

Six whole chicken breasts, salt, pepper and paprika, 1 can (1 pound 4 ounces) pie-sliced apples, 2 tablespoons light brown sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 cups packaged stuffing mix, 1/2 cup chopped pecans or nuts of choice, 1/4 cup melted butter for basting.

Remove excess fat from the chicken breasts; wash and pat dry; sprinkle inside and outside with salt, pepper and paprika. Blend pie-sliced apples and their juice with remaining ingredients (except butter). Use mixture to stuff hollows in the breasts. Skewer both halves together, or tie with cord.

In a 2-quart saucepan mix together the sugar, corn syrup, water and salt. Cook and stir constantly over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil.

Reduce heat; cook without stirring to 248 degrees or the firm ball stage.

Just before the temperature reaches 248 degrees, beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Beating constantly, slowly pour about half the hot syrup over egg whites. Meanwhile cook remaining syrup to 272 degrees or until the hard but not brittle threads stage. # Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: We purchased our teak furniture in a foreign country. The following instructions for the care of genuine teakwood came direct from the manufacturer himself:

Mix two-thirds boiled linseed oil and one-third turpentine. This mixture is considered to be the best for teakwood, but the oil cannot be kept for a long time. It does more harm than good to the wood if not used shortly after mixing.

The furniture should be oiled as seldom as possible. When it needs oiling it acquires a greyish, dead look.

Moisten a clean cloth with a little of the mixture. If the right quantity is used it will take some hard rubbing before you can see the oil on the wood.

THE HARD RUBBING causes heat, which opens the "grains" so that they may absorb the necessary oil right away. The wood can absorb very little oil and if too much is used the surface will be ugly and sticky and gather dust.

The company suggested polishing the furniture at night and waiting until the next morning to put all of your knick-knacks back in place.

Scratches, mars, water, alcohol rings and stains can be removed easily. Soak the spot in question with the oil mixture and rub gently along the grains with a piece of the finest steel wool.

MRS. J. A. Bond.

Dear Folks: Having talked with one of the biggest importers in teakwood overseas, I'm told by them that this wood is loaded with its own natural oils. Therefore, do NOT put too much oil mixture on your teakwood and be sure to rub it hard and briskly until the sheen occurs.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I believe I can tell you how to protect wooden salad bowls from becoming sticky and acquiring that glue-like residue on the inside.

Rather than using a damp cloth to wipe the bowls clean, rinse them well under running water and dry with paper toweling.

After bowls are dried thoroughly, take a piece of wax paper and rub entire bowl briskly inside and out.

This keeps the surface of the wooden bowls sealed against the oils and you will not find any more stickiness.

VERA M.

DEAR HELOISE: The lady who wrote to you about the way to save her last bit of tomato catsup didn't impress us at all.

My husband has a better way to empty the bottle, and even more thrifty. He learned it while working in a restaurant during the summer.

You simply put your almost-empty catsup bottle upside down on top of a new bottle. Naturally, with both tops removed. If

It works!

DEAR HELOISE: Tell all the women who have metal cabinets that they can trot right down to the five and dime store and ask for magnet-back cup hooks.

Though they might get the same glassy-eyed treatment that I did when I first asked for them (one clerk said: "If you would develop and patent such an item I'm sure you will make a million"), such hooks are on the market. And they cost a mere 25 cents.

NOT QUITE SO HOT

RENO (AP) — University of Nevada students got a hot idea for a flashy opening of their annual winter carnival. They hoped to find a volunteer skier to wear a fire-proof asbestos suit, douse him with kerosene and send him flaming down the slope at the head of a torchlight parade on skis.

First, however, they checked with a fire fighting expert at nearby Stead Air Force Base. Linda Chambers, a student, reported the expert told them: "He'd be baked by the time he got to the bottom of the hill."

The students looked for another idea.

YWCA Eliminates Pledge of Faith

Young Women's Christian Association has eliminated the pledge of faith required of all voting members in what leaders regard as part of a move to revitalize the country's biggest organization of women.

Approval of the new membership policy Tuesday at the group's triennial national convention will benefit an estimated 65 per cent of the YWCA membership having non-voting status.

Passage of the policy change came after some heated debate on a controversial proposal aimed at eliminating the affirmation of the Christian faith itself. Opponents viewed the proposal as an effort to end the century-old identity of the YWCA as a Christian organization and to open its leadership ranks to all members.

The pledge or assent to the purpose of the YWCA was regarded in the past as a stumbling block for Roman Catholics and non-Christians. Non-voters outnumber voters in the YWCA today two to one. Leaders in the YWCA movement still must, however, sign the pledge of faith.

The YWCA, founded in the United States in 1858, claims a registered membership of two million, including voting and non-voting members.

The requirement that all voting members must accept the pledge of faith began after the organization dropped its rule requiring that all members belong to a Protestant evangelical church. The change was made for student associations in 1920 and for adult groups in 1934.

Opinions Differ on Glenn's Chances For Nomination

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Determined backers of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. says opponents' failure to remove his name from the Democratic senatorial ballot in the May 5 primary will revive his prospects of being nominated.

But others—some early Glenn supporters included—contend that it's too late to carry out a successful nomination drive for the injured space hero.

Glenn withdrew from the Senate race after injuring his inner ear in a fall against the bathtub in his Columbus apartment. But his withdrawal came after the March 30 deadline and his name remained on the ballot.

On Tuesday, the State Supreme Court dismissed a suit by Albert T. Ball of Cleveland, who also has been seeking the nomination, which would have removed Glenn's name. Secretary of State Ted W. Brown then ordered election boards in all 88 counties to tally Glenn votes.

Ball and others say such votes would be wasted.

Not so, say Glenn backers, who predict Glenn will have recovered and would accept the nomination if he gets the votes.

Glenn is recuperating in Texas. Others on the ballot for the Democratic nomination for Ohio's junior U. S. Senate seat are incumbent Stephen M. Young of Cleveland, Ball and William Hotchkiss of Akron. Republicans seeking the seat are Secretary of State Brown and Congressman-at-Large Robert Taft Jr.

A small group of Americans defied Mexico by hauling down the Mexican flag and raising the Bear Flag of California in its place on June 14, 1846, at Sonoma.

A word from THERON at the Country Store

For some time I have been thinking about changing our store hours. For a number of years we have been open nineteen hours each day. From six in the morning till one the next morning.

In order to have more people here to serve you during our busy hours we will now open at 7:30 and close at 12:30. This will still give our customers 17 hours each day to shop and seven hours to sleep.

Divers Explore Lake Below Desert

BEATTY, Nev. (AP) — California divers are exploring a vast underground lake beneath the floor of world-famed Death Valley, a volcanic cavern reachable only through a waterhole known as "miners bathtub."

Santa Barbara diver Jim Houtz so far has descended to a depth of 284 feet through a fissure in the earth's crust, using skin-diving equipment.

At this depth, he says, the fissure widens out into a huge water-filled cavern extending beyond the reach of his present equipment.

He is planning to adapt deep sea diving equipment to enable him to reach depths down to 1,000 feet.

Houtz has no way of judging the size of the underground lake but he says the fact that the waterhole has a tidal rise and fall of nine inches indicates a very large body of water.

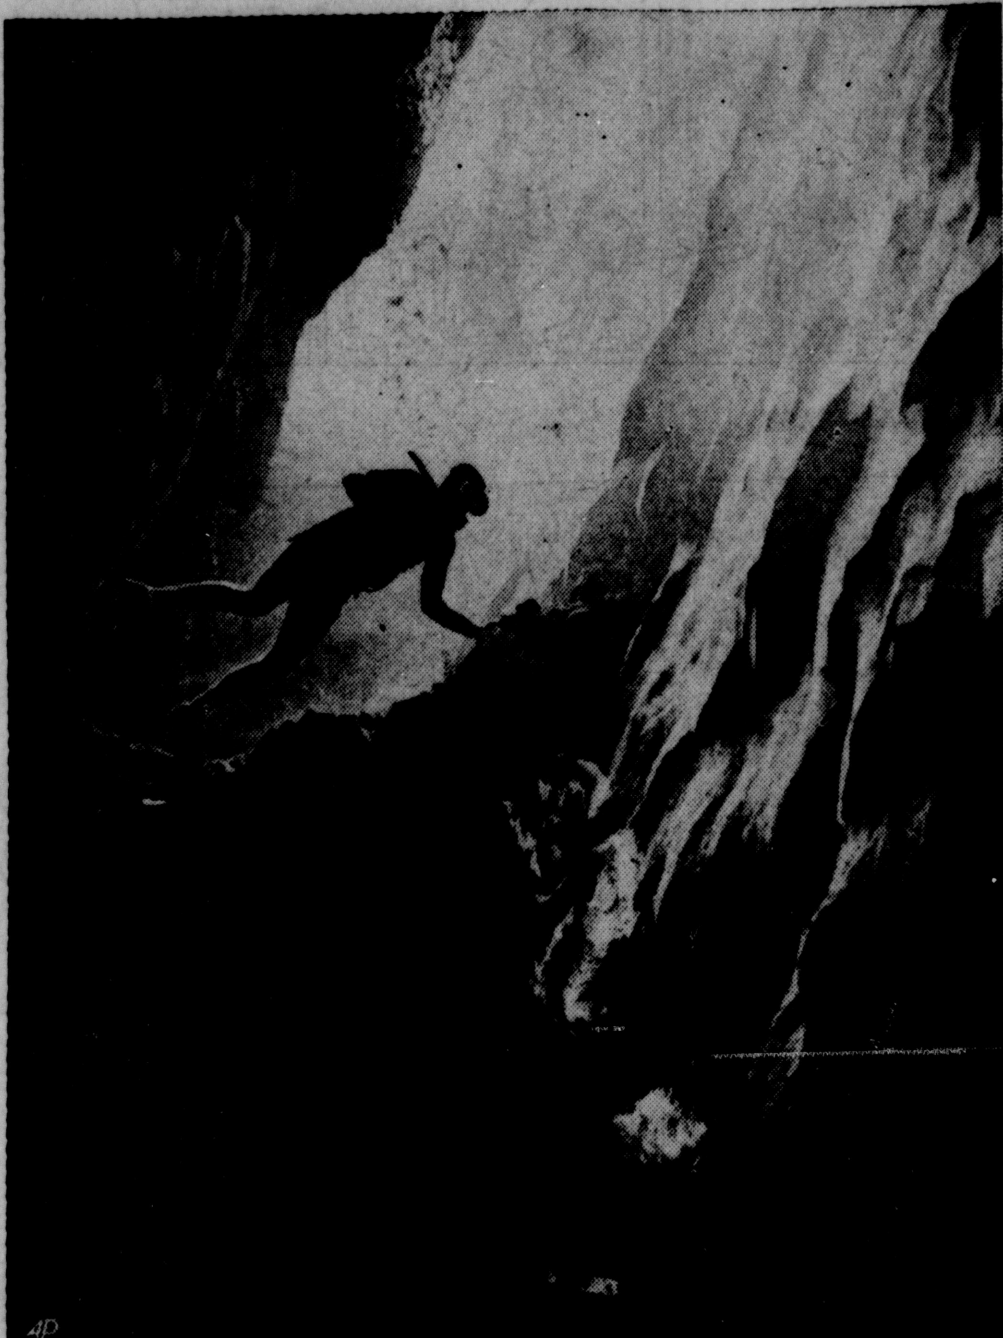

Houtz, onetime Navy diver recently employed in offshore drilling operations at Santa Barbara, has been diving in the waterhole for a year and recently organized Devil's Hole Scientific Research Foundation to finance further exploration.

The waterhole originally was named by prospectors who found its 92-degree water made an excellent bath. Houtz renamed it Devil's Hole.

The waterhole, with only 242 square feet of water surface, is in a hard-to-find desert area called Ash Meadows just outside the boundary of Death Valley National Monument in Nevada. The area, shown on few maps, takes its name from the ashes spewed out some 250,000 years ago, Houtz says, by a nearby volcano, now extinct.

Houtz has found one species of inch-long fish which he believes has changed little since prehistoric days.

He also has found, in a branch fissure, a pocket of air which he believes has been trapped since volcanic days.

DESCENDING — Diver Jim Houtz, who is leading the Devil's Hole Scientific Research Foundation expedition near Death Valley, Calif., dives into a vast underground lake through a narrow waterhole. Bubble are from Houtz's Scuba diving gear.

Houtz says there is no water movement except from tidal action. A packet of dye opened at 100 feet spread to only 12 cubic feet in five hours. Scientific significance of the find has yet to be determined, but the waterhole is great for of Houtz' backers is the International Underwater Film Festival, an organization of professional skin divers.

Ohio Dentist Wins American Cookout Championship

HONOLULU (AP)—If someday you should find yourself eating Dr. Gail Stanley Erbeck's Luau Pork Ambrosia, you ought to know that you're enjoying a repast worth $10,000.

That succulent dish earned for Dr. Erbeck—a dentist and barbecue specialist from Mason, Ohio—the title of "America's Cookout Champion" Monday. And along with the title went a check for $10,000.

Dr. Erbeck, who is married and has two children, won out over 24 other barbecue specialists at the U.S. Cookout Championship sponsored by Kaiser Foil.

Here is Dr. Erbeck's winning recipe:

Luau Pork Ambrosia—1 (5-lb) pork roast, chine bone removed, tied for roasting 4 jars strained apricots (baby food)

1-3 cup honey
1-4 cup fresh lemon juice
1-4 cup soy sauce
1-2 clove garlic, minced
1 cup ginger ale
1-8 teaspoon ginger
1-8 teaspoon pepper
1 can (1 lb. 13-oz.) whole unpeeled apricots
1 tablespoon lemon rind, grated
1-4 cup coconut, freshly grated parsley sprigs
quilted broiling foil

Place roast in marinating dish. Combine 2 jars strained apricots, honey, lemon juice; soy sauce, garlic, onion, ginger ale, ginger and pepper; pour over pork. Marinate for 4 to 5 hours, turning occasionally.

Line grill with quilted foil; let coals burn down until covered with gray ashes.

Remove pork from marinade; reserve marinade. Place roast on spit and cook over low coals for approximately 3½ hours. If using a meat thermometer, roast should register 185 degrees when done. During the last half hour, baste frequently with marinade. During the last five minutes, spread one jar strained apricots over roast.

Heat marinade with one jar strained apricots; serve as sauce over meat. Heat whole apricots and lemon rind together. Remove roast to hot serving platter; garnish with whole apricots, sprinkle with coconut and parsley sprigs.

Makes six to eight servings.
